Client Appreciation Edition

KATIE KILLION represents a mother who lost her 19 year old son, T.J., due to a tragic motor vehicle accident. T.J., was riding his motorcycle near his home when someone driving a truck in the opposite direction drove up a narrow and blind hill and struck T.J. head on. In one short moment, T.J. lost his life and a mother lost her son. The roadway was dangerous and contributed to the accident. KMLG sued two municipalities responsible for the construction, design and maintenance of the roadway. Often times, cases against municipalities are very difficult.

"A thousand Thank you's and my deepest appreciation for all you do for my Son, Katie. There are no words. As we come upon the 5th year without him this Monday - I feel as if it were yesterday and a million years at the same time. He was the light of my life and every day now has a grey cast in his absence. Thank you, from the bottom of my heart, for fighting for us." -Pam A.

After suit was filed, the municipalities argued to have the case thrown out and were successful. KMLG didn't quit. We appealed the case to the Commonwealth Court. The odds were against us. Only 14% of cases argued at this level are remanded. Katie Killion argued before the Court and was successful. The case was remanded to state court to be tried by a jury. The municipalities have since requested an allowance to file an appeal with the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, the court of last resort. KMLG will continue to fight for TJ and his family. We know with perseverance, determination and hard work, we will prevail for T.J. and his family.

BRIITANI HASSEN represents Helene for injuries that she sustained when an employee of a business dropped several heavy shelving units onto her back. CLAIRE MCGEE represents Ashley, who was involved in a motorcycle accident. Around five o'clock in the afternoon, Ashley had just left a friend's house and was on her way to get ready for a Fourth of July celebration. Unfortunately, she was struck by a motor vehicle. TONY MENGINE represented Gus on a complex contract matter. Tony was able to amicably resolve the matter and the client was satisfied. Gus sent Tony the below email.

"In this world of uncertainty, I was not sure who to trust. Even with a degree in Mathematics, the prospect of navigating the legal system appeared to be intimidating and arduous.

I already had an attorney that worked with me on estate planning but she advised I should engage an attorney with a proven record in litigation. This is when she referred me to Anthony Mengine and his team. I explained my problem in simple terms and Tony was able to go forward and meet with the many, many people - legal parties, property owners, county officials, etc., the depth I cannot even fathom.

Conversation was always casual - in one, I found that Tony had backpacked across Europe, to see the world and meet the people. I am confident this shaped him into the caring and concerned person that he is. It was never about the money, it was about doing what was right. Tony always had my best interests in mind and I had no concerns or need to stress. I was very happy with the outcome, and of course, the positive results!" - Gus P.

GEORGE KONTOS represented Debra, a widow who lost her husband in a tragic pedestrian/motor vehicle accident. After obtaining a good result, Debra sent George the following message:

"George and his firm were there when I needed them. George always took the time to explain things to me, and to call me back right away anytime I called with a question or concern. The matters involving my case were very significant to me and my family, and George's conduct throughout the case demonstrated to us all that he felt the very same sense of importance about our case." - Debra K.
