In 2015, KMLG welcomed a new associate attorney, Claire McGee (right). We also welcomed our new paralegal, Courtney Sobolak (left). Claire and Courtney are outstanding and we are so happy they are part of our team!

Best Wishes for the New Year!

Our Year in Review...

January 6, 2016 marks the second year anniversary of KMLG. Like our first year, the second year has been a great success! Our attorneys have had the opportunity to fight and win tremendous settlements and verdicts for our deserving clients. Our experience and knowledge has allowed our law firm to represent clients in a multitude of diverse cases.

As always, we represent many clients regarding auto accidents. Tony Mengine successfully settled a liability claim against a negligent driver. The Plaintiff received a six figure settlement. The Plaintiff also received an additional six figure settlement under their own underinsured motorist coverage. Without Tony's hard work, the Plaintiff may not have received this additional settlement.

Also, we continue to fight for our clients that have medical malpractice claims. This year, George Kontos and Katie Killion fought hard and settled one of many medical negligence cases for over seven figures on the verge of trial.

Our firm also has had opportunities to represent clients regarding defamation cases. George Kontos and Brittani Hassen represented a man wrongfully accused of passing counterfeit money. After several days, a jury awarded money damages. Additionally, we have filed suit on behalf of a Plaintiff for defamatory statements made by Bill Cosby. This case is ongoing and we anticipate a hard fight with a good outcome.

Our firm also represents clients in diverse civil rights matters. One notable case involves the death of a prisoner, who we have alleged, did not receive needed medical care. Another notable case involves the escape of a prisoner who subsequently murdered a woman that lived near the prison. We represent the woman's family and are fighting the jail for allowing the inmate to escape.

In addition to Plaintiff's work, we also defend clients in civil matters. In 2015, Brittani Hassen defended a former Pittsburgh professional athlete that was sued for assault. The client denied his involvement. After a hard fought fight, the jury returned a verdict in favor of our client.

As you can see, our experienced firm practices many diverse areas of law. We fight hard for our clients. In two short years, we have been successful in obtaining great outcomes for our clients. If you think you have a case, please call us anytime for a free consultation.

Do you own a Volkswagen or Audi?

If you own a "CleanDiesel" Volkswagen or Audi, you may have a lawsuit to recoup money damages for loss of value, inability to sell your vehicle, reduced efficiency, etc.

KMLG is accepting these cases.
